FEAST - TechFit logic and link to action research in the dairy value chains

The basic logic

FEAST tell us whether feed is an important issue at some location and gives a good description of the farming system, context, and livestock component.

TechFit offers a framework to evaluate and prioritize feed options based on expert knowledge. Gives shortlist of interventions.

Action research on feed interventions designed in relation to farmer decisions as opposed to other indicators such as productivity etc.